SINGAPORE, June 30 (Reuters) - The following are stories from Singapore newspapers on Wednesday. Reuters has not verified these stories.

BUSINESS TIMES

The National University of Singapore's overall price index for completed non-landed private homes rose 2.6 percent in May from April though developers' sales have slowed since May due to the debt crisis in Europe.

Singapore Telecom has given its management team an across-the-board pay rise on the back of a strong business rebound last year, with group chief executive Chua Sock Koong collecting a 23 percent rise in her 2009 annual pay.

STRAITS TIMES

Singapore will be importing liquefied natural gas from Qatar as the city-state plans to diversify its gas import sources, said Lee Kuan Yew, Former Prime Minister and Singapore's most influential politician.

Singapore is the safest place in Southeast Asia to do business, according to France-based global credit insurer Coface, which rates countries on the risk of payment defaults by companies.
